

Privacy Statement

Our Midwifery Practice Group is bound by law and professional ethics to safeguard your privacy and the confidentiality of your personal information.

This includes:

- Collecting only the information that may be necessary for your care;
- Keeping accurate and up-to-date records;
- Safeguarding the medical records in our possession
- Sharing information with other health-care providers on a “need to know” basis where required for your health care;
- Disclosing information to third parties only with your express consent, or as permitted or required by law; and
- Retaining/destroying records in accordance with the law.

You will be asked to sign a consent form that gives your consent for our collection, use, and disclosure of your personal information for purposes related to your care.

You have the right to see your records. You may also obtain copies of your records.

Please speak with your midwives if you have any concerns about the accuracy of your records or if you would like to request a copy of your chart.

If you would like to discuss our privacy policy in more detail, or have specific questions or complaints about how your information is handled, please speak to your midwives.

You may contact our Practice Privacy Officer, Mitra Sadeghipour, with questions or concerns.

For additional information, you may read our full Privacy Policy, available on our website, bornmidwives.ca, or from our staff.
